The Third Sunday after the Epiphany

The Wedding of Cana: Another Theophany

The word Theophany means “Revelation of God;” At the Wedding of Cana Jesus is revealed as One with the Lord of Creation. St. Paul would go on to translate this vision and understanding of Jesus into words: “For by him [Jesus] were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him” (Colossians 1:16).

The Old Order Gives Way to a New

This Sunday's Gospel is another manifestation of Christ, of his sympathy and ready help in case of need and of this miraculous power over nature. But to St. John Jesus turning water into wine is a "sign"; "it sets forth, for him who is willing so to read it, the relation of the old order and the new, of the Law and the Gospel; the latter is seen as the perfecting and transformation of the former" (J.B. Lightfoot).

This is what Jesus does; in this way he ever "demonstrates His power". When He comes into life it sparkles like wine; it is no longer drab and uninteresting but exhilarating and exciting, something with a purpose. (H. W. Dobson)

THE COLLECT FOR EPIPHANY 3

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE – Romans 12:16-21 (J.B. Phillips)

Overpower evil with good

12 ¹⁶ Live in harmony with each other. Don't become snobbish but take a real interest in ordinary people. Don't become set in your own opinions.

¹⁷ Don't pay back a bad turn by a bad turn, to anyone. Don't say "it doesn't matter what people think", but see that your public behaviour is above criticism.

¹⁸ As far as your responsibility goes, live at peace with everyone.

¹⁹ Never take vengeance into your own hands, my dear friends: stand back and let God punish if he will. For it is written: 'Vengeance is mine. I will repay'.

²⁰⁻²¹ ... these are God's words: 'Therefore if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him a drink; for in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head'. Don't allow yourself to be overpowered with evil. Take the offensive—overpower evil by good!

NOTE: The closing section of Romans 12 deals with the way those who seek to do God's will cope with their enemies. "Love your enemies," counsels our Lord, "do good to those who curse you" (Luke 6:27-28). In a hot and arid country a cup of water was a symbol of great blessing (Mark 9:41 and Matthew 25:35, 40). The apostle points out that giving drink to the thirsty is a way to "overcome evil with good." (William Sydnor)

THE GOSPEL – St. John 2:1-11 (J.B. Phillips)

The Son of God and a village wedding

2 Two days later there was a wedding in the Galilean village of Cana.

2-3 Jesus' mother was there and he and his disciples were invited to the festivities. Then it happened that the supply of wine gave out, and Jesus' mother told him, "They have no more wine."

4 "Is that your concern, or mine?" replied Jesus. "My time has not come yet."

5 So his mother said to the servants, "Mind you do whatever he tells you."

6-11 In the room six very large stone water-jars stood on the floor (actually for the Jewish ceremonial cleansing), each holding about twenty gallons. Jesus gave instructions for these jars to be filled with water, and the servants filled them to the brim. Then he said to them, "Now draw some water out and take it to the master of ceremonies", which they did. When this man tasted the water, which had now become wine, without knowing where it came from (though naturally the servants who had drawn the water knew), he called out to the bridegroom and said to him, "Everybody I know puts his good wine on first and then when men have had plenty to drink, he brings out the poor stuff. But you have kept back your good wine till now!" Jesus gave this, the first of his signs, at Cana in Galilee. He demonstrated his power and his disciples believed in him.

NOTE: In the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus Christ manifested forth His glory. This is a central emphasis of the Epiphany season. (William Sydnor)

LECTIONARY READINGS

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Isaiah 41:8-10, 17-20 (RSV)

God's purposes will be fulfilled

8 Jacob, whom I have chosen,

the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

9 you whom I took from the ends of the earth,

and called from its farthest corners,

saying to you, "You are my servant,

I have chosen you and not cast you off";

10 fear not, for I am with you,

be not dismayed, for I am your God;

¹⁷ When the poor and needy seek water,
and there is none,
and their tongue is parched with thirst,
I the LORD will answer them,
I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

¹⁸ I will open rivers on the bare heights,
and fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
and the dry land springs of water.

¹⁹ I will put in the wilderness the cedar,
the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive;
I will set in the desert the cypress,
the plane and the pine together;
²⁰ that men may see and know,
may consider and understand together,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
the Holy One of Israel has created it.

NOTE: Here are two stanzas of a long poem (41:1-42:4) dealing with the trial of the nations. The prophet, in one of the Bible's loveliest passages, tells us of God's concern for His people. God's lovingkindness toward Israel is pictured in terms of springs of water in a dry land. This rewarding passage deserves to be read aloud, meditated upon and memorized. (William Sydnor)
