QIIR

21 April 1926 – 8 September 2022

On September 8th as the flag was lowered over Buckingham Palace to announce the passing of Queen Elizabeth II, a rainbow appeared. This was very apropos. So much as God has fulfilled His faithfulness, so had she.

Her reign of almost seventy-one years is the longest reign of a British Monarch and longest reign of a female in history. She was the epitome of grace, beauty, and strength. During her lifetime she endured wars, sorrow, and joy, all the while meeting some of the most prolific characters of our time.

September 19th saw a state funeral at Westminster Abbey, the first since George II in 1760. With a procession of 1,000 military personnel and her pony and royal corgis watching from the side, the dutiful Elizabeth II Regina was taken to St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle for a committal service and then to be reunited with her beloved Phillip in the King George VI Memorial Chapel.

It was impossible not to feel sad that beautiful autumn day to know that would be the last time anyone would see the beautifully embroidered EIIR uniforms in service. Today we take solace in the extraordinary memories left for us by this brilliant crown jewel.
