The Fifth Sunday after Easter
Rogation Sunday

Blessing the Fields on Rogation Sunday at Hever, Kent, England, in 1967

Seeking God's help in all aspects of life

This Sunday comes directly before the three Rogation [from the Latin meaning to ask] Days, which have been used ever since the fifth century as days of prayer for God's blessing on the crops. This Sunday, too, is often called Rogation Sunday. The tone is set in the opening words of the Collect: "O LORD, from whom all good things do come." A common feature of Rogation days in former times was the ceremony of beating the bounds, in which a procession of parishioners, led by the minister, churchwarden, and choirboys, would proceed around the boundary of their parish and pray for its protection in the forthcoming year.

THE COLLECT FOR EASTER 5

O LORD, from whom all good things do come; Grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE EPISTLE – St. James 1:22-27 (J.B. Phillips)

Religion must be practical

¹²² Have done, then, with impurity and every other evil which touches the lives of others, and humbly accept the message that God has sown in your hearts, and which can save your souls. Don't I beg you, only hear the message, but put it into practice; otherwise you are merely deluding yourselves. The man who simply hears and does nothing about it is like a man catching the reflection of his own face in a mirror. He sees himself, it is true, but he goes on with whatever he was doing without the slightest recollection of what sort of person he saw in the mirror. But the man who looks into the perfect mirror of God's law, the law of liberty (or freedom), and makes a habit of so doing, is not the man who sees and forgets. He puts that law into practice and he wins true happiness.

²⁶ If anyone appears to be "religious" but cannot control his tongue, he deceives himself and we may be sure that his religion is useless.

²⁷ Religion that is pure and genuine in the sight of God the Father will show itself by such things as visiting orphans and widows in their distress and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

NOTE: The Epistle is a continuation of last Sunday's, which speaks of God being the source of all good gifts. Today's verses are on hearing and doing, on controlling the tongue, and closes with the definition of true religion. (William Sydnor)

THE GOSPEL (H.C.) – St. John 16:23-33 (J.B. Phillips)

Ask and you will receive

16^{23b-24} “I assure you that whatever you ask the Father he will give you in my name. Up to now you have asked nothing in my name; ask now, and you will receive, that your joy may be overflowing.

Jesus speaks further of the future

²⁵⁻²⁸ “I have been speaking to you in parables—but the time is coming to give up parables and tell you plainly about the Father. When that time comes, you will make your requests to him in my own name, for I need make no promise to plead to the Father for you, for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. Yes, I did come from the Father and I came into the world. Now I leave the world behind and return to the Father.”

²⁹⁻³⁰ “Now you are speaking plainly,” cried the disciples, “and are not using parables. Now we know that everything is known to you—no more questions are needed. This makes us sure that you did come from God.”

³¹⁻³³ “So you believe in me now?” replied Jesus. “The time is coming, indeed, it has already come, when you will be scattered, every one of you going home and leaving me alone. Yet I am not really alone for the Father is with me. I have told you all this so that you may find your peace in me. You will find trouble in the world—but, never lose heart, I have conquered the world!”

NOTE: Here is Christ’s wonderful promise to those who accept him as Lord: “If you ask anything of the Father, he will give it to you in my name” (v.23). This – asking – is probably the only condition the Bible puts on God’s bounty. (William Sydnor)

LECTIONARY READINGS

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Ezekiel 34:25-31 (RSV)

Showers of blessing

“I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. ²⁶ And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷ And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I break the bars of their yoke, and deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸ They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beasts of the land devour them; they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. ²⁹ And I will provide for them prosperous^[a] plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations. ³⁰ And they shall know that I, the Lord their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord God. ³¹ And you are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture,^[b] and I am your God, says the Lord God.”

NOTE: The prophet closes a section on the shepherds of Israel (their kings) with this reassuring covenant of peace. The description of the Good Shepherd in St. John (10:1-18) can be appreciated more fully against this background. On Rogation Sunday we hear particularly the promise that there “shall be showers of blessing” (v. 26). (William Sydnor)

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – St. Luke 11:1-13 (J.B. Phillips)

Jesus gives a model prayer

11 One day it happened that Jesus was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said, “Lord, teach us how to pray, as John used to teach his disciples.”

²⁻⁴ “When you pray,” returned Jesus, “you should say, ‘Father, may your name be honoured—may your kingdom come! Give us each day the bread we need, and forgive us our sins, for we forgive anyone who owes anything to us; and keep us clear of temptation.’”

The willingness of the Father to answer prayer

⁵⁻⁸ Then he added, “If any of you has a friend, and goes to him in the middle of the night and says, ‘Lend me three loaves, my dear fellow, for a friend of mine has just arrived after a journey and I have no food to put in front of him’; and then he answers from inside the house, ‘Don’t bother me with your troubles. The front door is locked and my children and I have gone to bed. I simply cannot get up now and give you anything!’ Yet, I tell you, that even if he won’t get up and give him what he wants simply because he is his friend, yet if he persists, he will rouse himself and give him everything he needs.”

⁹⁻¹⁰ And so I tell you, ask and it will be given you, search and you will find, knock and the door will be opened to you. The one who asks will always receive; the one who is searching will always find, and the door is opened to the man who knocks.”

¹¹⁻¹³ “Some of you are fathers, and if your son asks you for some fish, would you give him a snake instead, or if he asks you for an egg, would you make him a present of a scorpion? So, if you, for all your evil, know how to give good things to your children, how much more likely is it that your Heavenly Father will give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

NOTE: The Lord’s Prayer and the Master’s teaching on prayer mean a great deal to us on a Sunday when our thinking hovers around asking (Latin, rogare). (William Sydnor)
