Community Thanksgiving dinner set at St. Luke's

After a two-year hiatus because of Covid, St. Luke's Blue Ridge will resume its community dinner on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24. The meal will be served at noon. Persons who wish to attend are asked to call the church office and register. Meat will be provided; guests may bring side dishes.

A service of Holy Communion will be held at 11 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day. Sunday services remain at 8:15 a.m. and 10 a.m.

The next community concert is set for Sunday, Nov. 27, at 5 p.m. The Misty Mountain Singers, a community choir, will present Carols by Candlelight under the direction of Randy Wilber.

St. Luke's, a faithful, outward-looking, Gospel-centred, Anglican (Episcopal) Church, is located at 7 Ewing St., across from the Blue Ridge Kiwanis Club Fairgrounds. The Rev. Victor H. Morgan is rector. For more information, visit www.stlukesblueridge.org or call (706) 632-8245.
